increases of border guard troops along the Hungarian Justrian border. Similar DATE PREPARED 16 'Dril 1951  25X1  DATE PREPARED 16 'Dril 1951  CIRCULATE  1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Regyeshalon (F 13/Y 06) started supplying the Rungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers at that time, where the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  25X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substential abservations used graded in the Sopron and Scentgothera areas.  Also, the Rungarian was property to Started areas.  Also, the Rungarian was property to Started areas.  Also, the Rungarian was property to DATE OF CONTENT 1ste Pebruary 1951  DATE PREPARED 16 oril 1951  25X1  CIRCULATE  1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Regyeshalom (F h3/Y 06) started supplying the Rungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers at that time, *  2. Several 100s of the Hungarian Argy were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Cornent. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Rungarian-fustrian border. Similar that cliffest in December 1950. The Burgarian was ignored. Similar 25X1
DATE PREPARED 16 'pril 1951  25X1  Labout the end of February 1951, the bakery in Regreshalon (F 13/Y 06) started supplying the Rungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of treac. The border guard unit was balieved to number about 200 soldiers at that time.  2. Several 100s of the Rungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  2. Correct. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Rungarian starting border. Similar that officet in December 1950, The heart was ignored to the support to DATE PREPARED 16 'pril 1951  25X1  Labout the end of February 1951, the bakery in Regreshalon (F 13/Y 06) started supplying the Rungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of breac. The border guard unit was balieved to number about 200 soldiers at that time, *  2. Several 100s of the Rungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1  * Correct. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Rungarian startian border. Similar that clusted in Research 1950, The Language and Szentgothard areas.  Also, the Rungarian Paigrants' newspaper reported to DATE PREPARED 16 'Dril 1051  25X1  1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Hegyeshalom (F 43/Y 06) started supplying the Mungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of trend. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Several 'Cos of the Mungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substential increases of border guard troops along the Mungarian-Justican border. Similar observations was pade in the Sopron and Szentpotthard areas.  Also, the Mungarian waigrouts' newspaper reported to
1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Negreshalom (P 43/Y 06) started supplying the Mungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity at that time. *  2. Several NOS of the Mungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Cornect. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the fluggrant-fustrian border. Similar abservations were polic in the Sopron and Scartforthard areas.  Also, the fluggrand waigrents' newspaper reported to
1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Negreshalom (P 43/Y 06) started supplying the Mungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity at that time. *  2. Several NOS of the Mungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Cornect. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the fluggrant-fustrian border. Similar abservations were polic in the Sopron and Scartforthard areas.  Also, the fluggrand waigrents' newspaper reported to
1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Repyeshalom (F 13/Y 06) started supplying the Rangarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers at that time. *  2. Several 100s of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1   Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substential observations were pack in the Sopron and Szentgothard areas.  Also, the Hungarian waigrants' newspaper reported to
1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Hegyeshalom (F 43/Y 06) started supplying the Nungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Severel NOS of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Comment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substential observations were pack in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian Paigrants' newspaper reported to
1. About the end of February 1951, the bakery in Negyeshalom (F 43/Y 06) started supplying the Nungarian border guard unit with double the previous quantity of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Severel NOS of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substential observations were pack in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian Paigrants' newspaper reported to
of breac. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Several 100s of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Hungarian-fustrian border. Similar observations were pade in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian valgrants' newspaper reported to
of breac. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Several NCOs of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1 * Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Hungarian-fustrian border. Similar observations were pade in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian waigrants' newspaper reported to
of breac. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Several 100s of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Hungarian-fustrian border. Similar observations were pade in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian valgrants newspaper reported to
of bread. The border guard unit was believed to number about 200 soldiers  2. Several 100s of the Hungarian Army were recently transferred to the police, because the number of volunteers for police service was too low.  5X1    Corment. The report confirms information of late 1950 on substantial increases of border guard troops along the Hungarian-fustrian border. Similar observations were pade in the Sopron and Szentgotthard areas.  Also, the Hungarian valgrants newspaper reported to The state of the s
Document No.  No Change in Class.  Declaration
Class. Thanged Te: TS
Asia BB 78-2 Ba or 07 AUG 1978 25X1
CONFIDENTIAL
CLASSIFICATION SECULT. 25X1